

ACCOMMODATION AND HUMAN RIGHTS MANAGEMENT (AHRM)

Arm yourself with in-demand industry skills to protect human rights.

Knowledge of workplace rights and accommodations is a key, high-demand industry skill that opens up a wide range of possibilities. Increase your career prospects in human rights, disability management, return to work, advocacy, or accommodation with this fully online program. Through interactive courses, you'll gain a comprehensive and holistic understanding of human rights law, health and wellness strategies, and disability management. You'll learn essential skills that human resource professionals need to navigate – national and provincial employment legislation.

Upon graduation, you can immediately apply your skills to the workplace or continue your academic journey in fields such as social science, law, or human resources.
