

CORPORATE SAFETY AND SECURITY (CSSP)

Maintain law and order with a job in corporate security

From concerts to hospitals, safety and security plays a crucial role in diverse industries like mining, education, casino, energy, retail, medical, residential, and entertainment. You'll learn to communicate effectively with different types of people in situations of both conflict and calm and manage the movement of people and vehicles.

Explore how to conduct patrols and investigations, utilize security equipment, collect evidence, take notes, and make arrests. As a graduate, you'll be able to walk off the campus and into a job armed with additional credentials in non-violent crisis intervention, suicide intervention, and mental health first aid.

Program highlights

- Earn certifications as part of your coursework, such as safeTALK, Emergency First Aid and CPR Level A, Nonviolent Crisis Intervention, and more
- Prepares you to write the Ontario Security Guard License and Ontario Private Investigators License exams
- Job opportunities available in a wide variety of industries
- Option to continue into the second year to complete the PSIP – Protection, Security & Investigation (PSIP) diploma program
