

GENERAL ARTS AND SCIENCE DIPLOMA (GASP)

Explore the liberal arts at your own pace

Designed to introduce you to core subjects within the liberal arts, this program allows you to explore where your talents and passions lie. You'll gain a background in areas like Indigenous studies, psychology, sociology, and anthropology. You'll develop critical and digital literacies, as well as academic research and writing skills.

Working with an educational planner, you'll customize your education with elective and General Education courses while enjoying multiple delivery modes. Throughout the program, you'll learn from a variety of professors and explore potential career paths in law and justice, community services, humanities, the arts, business, technology, skilled trades, engineering and much more.
